

Halved

Malevolent Creation

Live this spectacle
Grow and spawn on
Offspring reaching out
Only dies for none
This is reality
Live to populate
Dunce or superiority
Enhance and procreate

You think you know
What it is to live
Until you taste death
You will not have lived
Media blindsiding
Countless homicides
Touching the blood
Life desensitized

Death is half of life
Felt best before you die
Shocking new reality
Life is now fast to flee
Living in a shadow
Rising higher than a wall
Soon to kill soon to claim
Each and every, all

You think you know
What it is to live
Until you taste death
You will not have have lived
Media blindsiding
Countless homicides
Touching the blood
Life desensitized

Hands grab at what cannot be
Aspects of life never to be seen
It leaves you fast, it leaves you now
It comes apart and all breaks down
Head is flooded full of thought
Of and end inevitable plot
Self consume with rage of life
Al absorbed this your right
Death is half of all life
Must have dark to have light
Death is half of our life
Must have death to have life

Death is half of life
