

Night is rung wild
and i'm wondering what it is about you
fighting with my bed
trying to get some rest when a spring bird starts to sing that men come from mars i should know that
venus is my home
so why am i not there?
cause i want you
i need you anyhow
i want you
i need you to grow
i can't spend my days correcting your mistakes giving you all i've got for free
men come from mars
i should but that
venus is my home
so why am i here suffering? cause i want you
i need you anyhow
i want you
i need you anyway
i want you
i need you anytime
i want you
i need you to grow...
