

Moon

Malika Ayane

And even if i were with you
you were the moon
and even when
you felt the gloom
you'll never leave
my private room
i'll never be nobody's fool

not even when i run on pride
not even when
the day goes blind
not even when
the starts collide

Don't be scared
there's not a war
never ever feeling low

and even if
you were the moon
