

True Life

Malika Ayane

True love
Never come easy
But what would I do?

Storm Clouds are raging Knock on my angel door

Too late
I'll never forget it
But what would I do?

Night breezes are fading
Waving into the blue

True life
never come easy
over the rainbow
over the dark clouds
over the barriers
over the sunrise
open your eyes...

And even if you'd leave me soon
And even if you'd lock my room

Good night
soon will get breezy
but what would I do?
New days are chasing Run through you desert pool

True life
never come easy
over the rainbow
over the dark clouds
over the barriers
over the sunrise
open your eyes...

Feel my heart
with sorrow
Please stay
close to me Soon fresh summer wind
are blowin' in
