

Dare You

Mallory Knox

I had always pictured a future by your side
But now we feel like strangers & I have lost all I've known
I'm trying to think I'm trying to move on but I can't with the state I'm in Oh is there a future is there a time when you &
I will be alright?

Catch my eye in the mirror
She's the only that haunts me
Stare intense like you with her
Stay inside through this winter
She's the only on that haunts me
Scream inside keep your heart on fire or it'll wither, it'll wither

What am I supposed to say when I've chewed you up & spat you out like a bad taste And my heart's a shade of grey that's getting darker by the day You wait & wait for things to change but when will time become too late Cause time will tick & I'll stay the same My heart won't heal this way so

Catch my eye in the mirror
She's the only that haunts me
Stare intense like you with her
Stay inside through this winter
She's the only on that haunts me
Scream inside keep your heart on fire or it'll
wither, it'll wither

If you hold my hand tonight (dare you to let me go)
And if you keep your heart alight (dare you to let me go)
Will you find me in the darkness? (dare you to let me go)
And will you hold on to me tight Well if you hold my hand tonight (dare you to let me go)
And if you keep your heart alight (dare you to let me go)
Will you find me in the darkness (dare you to let me go)
And will you hold on to me tight

Catch my eye in the mirror
Stare intense like you with her
Stay inside through this winter
Scream inside keep your heart on fire or it'll
wither, it'll wither
Catch my eye in the mirror
She's the only that haunts me
Stare intense like you with her
