

Lights

Mallory Knox

Know why we are here
When we won't go away
We follow you to the darkest depths, so foul
And we can't climb out again

So what we gonna do?
Your leash is too tight to you

Welcome one and all to festival of lights
You ain't never seen before
And damn near pass it on
This house is not our home
So tonight we'll burn it all

I bet you wondered how long that this could last for
Well now you all know
We're stranded in the doorway fighting to sit out, my friend
And each dog has its day

Know what we must do?
We'll break your leash in two

Welcome one and all to festival of lights
You ain't never seen before
And damn near pass it on
This house is not our home
So tonight we'll burn it all

Welcome one and all to festival of lights
You ain't never seen before

Welcome one and all to a festival of lights
You ain't never seen before
And damn near pass it on
This house is not our home
So tonight we'll burn it all
And we won't go away
