

Lucky Me

Mallory Knox

Hey girl what you got makes my heart beat faster
You got me all wrapped around your finger
Hey girl I am your slave and you're my master
So give me that taste I'll never let you go
I'll never let you go, go

Yeah you glow like a fire
And you dance like the breeze
Oh you pull with a passion that even gravity would struggle to beat
Yeah you're the sweetest summer flower
And you're the tempest of the sea
You wanna share this night, oh baby lucky me
Oh baby lucky me

Hey girl maybe we're on to something special
Got me delirious slipping off your bathrobe
Hey girl the touch of your skin just takes me higher Baby, baby you win, I'm never letting you go
I'll never let you go
I'll never let you go, go, go, go

Yeah you glow like a fire
And you dance like the breeze
Oh you pull with a passion that even gravity would struggle to
beat
Yeah you're the sweetest summer flower
And you're the tempest of the sea
You wanna share this night' oh baby lucky me

Oh when the lights go down' there's little need to behave
You better watch your mouth before I do what you say
Oh when the lights go down' there's little need to behave
You better watch your mouth before I do what you say

Yeah you glow like a fire
And you dance like the breeze
Oh you pull with a passion that even gravity would struggle to b eat
Yeah you're the sweetest summer flower
And you're the tempest of the sea
You wanna share this night?
You wanna share this night?
You wanna share this night' oh baby lucky me
