

Saviour

Mallory Knox

These days we stand confused just like a flock of sheep
Who've come to know their shepherds, getting harder to see
If there's no God to watch over us all
Don't wait on Jesus to save your broken soul
Got me singing now

Woah, we're trapped between two walls
Woah, we gotta get out, we're breaking them down singing
Oooo, the cracks begin to form
Woah

So won't you raise your voice stand up and stamp your feet
We'll march together 'tilll dawn in our new masterpiece
If there's no God to watch over us all
Don't wait on Jesus to save your broken soul
Got me singing now

Woah, we're trapped between two walls
Woah, we gotta get out, we're breaking them down singing
Oooo, the cracks begin to form
Woah

Welcome one and you all to the way it always should be
To the world where you are the master of your destiny
Got me talking like
There is no God coming to save us all
Stop waiting for Jesus to save your soul
It's up to us now

Woah, we're trapped between two walls
Woah, we gotta get out, we're breaking them down singing
Oooo, the cracks begin to form
Woah
