

Deep Cover

Man Man

Deep Cover
Is not a place
It's a state of mind
To have your heart go incognito
And hide away for awhile

Deep Cover
It's a holiday
From the landslides you create
To have your heart take a second breath or two
Before your troubles
They always find you

The love you find though, it never seems to last
Nomadic lifestyles firmly stepping on the gas
The harder you shove them off the harder they shove right back
The heart is a motherfucker, I'm positive of that

So Deep Cover

It's a state of mind
To have your heart go incognito
And hide away for a while
