

Dear You

Man Overboard

Dear you,
This has got to be one of the last heartfelt things I can put together on a piece of paper to let you know.

Fading away at a sickening rate can put things in perspective for you.
You've always been the only one and I need you to know I do

live everyday without any regret of falling back into you.
We hold heads high while bullets fly.

Last drink of a lonely night and I wanted was to hold you.
I wrote some lonely lyrics to paint a picture to let you know.
Bleeding to death, laying in your bed I realized that I'll always need you.
you've always been the only one and I need you to know I do...

live everyday without any regret of falling back into you.
We hold heads high while bullets fly.

And I know that I've been asking a lot but
would you run away with me right now?
I've got the whole world figured out (And I know)
I've got the whole world figured out.

And I know that I've been asking a lot but
would you run away with me right now?
I've got the whole world figured out.
I've got the whole world figured out.

And I know that I've been asking a lot but
would you run away with me right now?
I've got the whole world figured out.
I've got the whole world figured out.
