

Love Your Friends, Die Laughing

Man Overboard

Well the night gets old so I'm back again.
The day just started because I'm up with my old friends,
A fat smoke and funny joke.
Sitting like a sponge, letting everything soak.
And I just got the nerve to get in the cage so don't bite me now.
And I just got the nerve to get in the cage so don't bite me now.

We made love tonight as the result of a fight.
When you put your arms around me, the whole world's alright.
And a day's worth of bitching goes down the drain
When you lay in my bed and pick my brain.
Shut up! Shut up! It's my turn to talk.
Don't try and run before you learn to walk.
Because a day's worth of bitching goes down the drain
When you lay in my bed and pick my brain.

I left my heart with my phone in my center console.
I left my feelings with my wallet and my keys
I feel so stupid because I came here without anything
But I'm finally at ease
