

Where I Left You

Man Overboard

Walking on the grass and I've never seen this town.
My head is feeling and heavy and it's pointing straight down.

Remember when I left and you said that you'll miss me
forever.

Give me a chance to explain, what I did was in vein.
I think we need some rules, It will never be the same.
But I don't care to look straight ahead cause I'm bleeding forever.

Hey, I want you to stay, I want you to stay right where
I left you.

Hey, I want you to stay, I want you to stay right where you are.

Trying to make it work and we're losing all our grace.
I wish we could go back to that very first place.
Now I think I ruined our lives and it's weird now
forever.

Seems you can't forget all the things that I said.
Wasting all your time when your wishing you were dead.
Ever since you knocked me down, I've been limping
forever.

Hey, I want you to stay, I want you to stay right where
I left you.

Hey, I want you to stay, I want you to stay right where
you are.

I can feel the breeze by the trees in the park.
A friend is everything I'm not fit for the part.
Give me a chance to explain what I did was in vein.
The words I said to you will never fix the Broken hearts and fading memories.

Driving in the summer, changing of leaves.
I never hurt you, I just let go.
Put the past inside a tempo.
I'd look straight ahead
But I don't see the end.

Hey, I want you to stay, I want you to stay right where
I left you.

Hey, I want you to stay, I want you to stay right where
you are.
