

Evils Fall

MAN WITH A MISSION

Run away right now
Abandon this place with never looking back
Alert clangs through The fear starts to rule
Reign of insanity continues to attack

Thick smog is around
What I see what I fear The silence with a sound
Slight bright eyes with ferocious lights
Never have I had this feeling that surrounds

Black shadows from the sky up above
The force of the evil? Whatever what it was Plateau burning turning into hell
Far away somewhere the ring of the church bell

Run about on Hide from the dark
Without what to do the fate is unknown
The silence surrounds with the clattering sound
We follow our fate with nowhere to go

In my mind all I find Standing alone
I believed that I stand by my own

In my mind Overbind Complication
I've denied all relations we have

But I belong to you You belong to me
Now I belong to you You belong to me

Yesterday went away
People roam and they know there's nowhere to ascend
Dropped on the land What is in our hand
Haunting in our dreams are we heading to the end

The new world kicks us away
Age of the lost keeps spitting on our face
So helpless waiting for the call
Rescue me lord as the evils fall

Someone from somewhere breathes out his voice
To never give up relinquish the choice
Miracles always made by our own
Comes from ourselves and not from that throne

Haunt about dropped on the land
Though maybe crushed one day we will stand
Now that we linger all we believe
The courage from you is the hope we only need

In my mind all I find The Resignation
The fact is here and you're the only expectation

I would cry maybe die Alone I'm useless
With you here I can walk on again

I belong to you You belong to me
Now I belong to you You belong to me

Cheap faith We're only human race
Just break
Evacuate from all this ruthless world
And seize your fate

We're only human race
Evacuate from all this ruthless world
to seize your fate

Try to find some hope in this world and you run away from the bloody whirl
Cloudy sky is above as reality bites

Searching for one path in the dark
And I'm searching for my one way ark
Thirsty soul Will I find out the true light?

In my mind all I find The Resignation
The fact is here and you're the only expectation

I would cry maybe die Alone I'm useless
With you here I can walk on again

I belong to you You belong to me
Now I belong to you You belong to me

Evacuate from all this ruthless world
And seize your fate

Oblivion of all in the end
