

Feel and Think

MAN WITH A MISSION

Bring it on down i'm used to being numb
The sense of incongruity i guess i'm just dumb
Now keep it on forever calculating every sum
Cause that's all what you ever do
You'll never make me cum

What did it mean? would we ever really realize?
I hope it ends when it's over being mesmerized
Bring it on down i'm proud of being dumb
The calling just refrains again come on come on come on

Tachidomara seru ima again we face another debt
Agaku yō ni mogaku yō ni
Hateru made "ikite" miseyou

Feel and think and i believe i know
Kotoba wo nomikomi
Ano ni~tsu no yō ni i sing that song again

"cherish your life" he said with all the might,
But himself doesn't understand
Why he's really here for
Pick up your shoes it's time to choose
You heard enough about it and you know that it is coming more

What did it mean? would we ever fuckin' realize?
I hope it ends when we're over being mesmerized
Bring it on down we're proud of being dumb
The calling now refrains again come on come on come on

Iki tsugu hima mo naku again i just remember you said
Kowasa renai tome sasenai
Unazuite hashiridasou

Feel and think and i believe i know
Itami wo kakikeshi
Ano ni~tsu no yō ni i sing that song again

I feel and think and i believe i know
Namida wo nomikomi
Feel and think to free my soul again

Where did it go
Where is the real tomorrow

I feel and think believe i know
Subete wo kakikeshi
Feel and think and i believe i know
Namida wo nomikomi
Feel and think to sing that song again
