

Searching life

MAN WITH A MISSION

You said it's all my dreaming that's unforgiven
I'm there till you pass away
Feel the cold wind blowing all my life

Obey all the rigors that you keep giving
I have no regrets to say
Sip the wine like tasting my own life

I still know he will fight against my longing mind
Know it's all destiny

Searching life, you're braving in my soul
Cracking time, I'll struggle in my role

I said it' s all up to me but I'm not sure yet
Believed that I'll make it end one day
Feel that cold wind blowing all my life

Contend all encounters to keep on losing
Forget where to go ahead
Could I find wings growing on my back

I still know he will fight against my longing mind
Know it's all destiny

Searching life, you're braving in my soul
Cracking time, I'll struggle in my role
