

Time is wasting now Not that much to stay
Come on hang with us just for another day
We'll be playing here with no words to say
Faster than a blink there goes yesterday

Pray your prayers for you Just in case you pay
Come on hang with us just for another day
We'll be waiting here Honest won't betray
It's no use to think we just don't make any sense.

And the film will go It goes round and round
Unloose enough for this bound
And now I have found out it is safe to say

I live my life to find today
Yes I got so high
I lived my life to find today
today

Silence has become
Come on hang with us for another day
We'll be waiting here
It's no use to think you'll never make any sense

And the film will go it goes round and round
Unloose enough for this bound
Float and fly all our way Yeah

Push the button now Go right back to start
That day you found out we're just God's junk of art
But you never know what finally becomes We strain our voice to say

I live my life to find today
Yeah I got so high
I lived my life to find today
