

Whatever you had said was everything

MAN WITH A MISSION

Hello again my violet memories
Quite a while since you've been gone
Not like years ago a lot has changed besides me
But I think I'm doing fine no worries

Still haven't any answers nor a way
It's ok I'll carry on Cause we always thought that
We won't need tomorrow
Believed we'd live forever
Asu no koto nado ki ni motomezu ni ita

All the things that we have left behind
The days when I was yours and you were mine
Whatever you had said was everything

Hello again the silence in my mind
Nowadays it's right or wrong
Easy come and go a lot has overtook me
But I think I'll manage on, won't hurry

Still haven't any reasons for today
I'm not sure if I belong
But you always said that
We don't need to follow
Inside you last forever
Wasureteta na o omoidaseta kureta

All the things that we have left behind
The moment I was yours and you were mine
Whatever you had said was everything

Nidoto wa konai "ima" ga
Bokura no subettedatta
Whatever you had said was everything

Kono sekai kara mo hajikidasa rete mo
Mizutomo yoi mono manoatari ni shite mo
I will walk this world with your words
Never lose the faith no more to find my way
Hikari ga sosogu

All the things that we have left behind
The days when I was yours and you were mine
Whatever you had said was everything
All the things that we have left behind
The days when I was yours and you were mine
Whatever you had said was everything

Whatever you had said was everything
Whatever you had said was everything
Whatever you had said was everything
Whatever you had said was everything
Whatever you had said was everything
