Manifest

If last night was crazy
What you said today
Shakes me
How can you like fake it
And not get all jaded
Trips me out man
But I'm here for you
After long nights you're talking
Spiritual
I'm waiting for a miracle
Crying in my arms
And the dj's out of songs
Drive you to your moms
I'm trying to stay calm

Thinking of a verse
Or the words I could say
But I turn on the radio
And try to play it safe

I used walk this road alone
I used to fight with sticks and stones
But now I know what I believe
This battles won on my knees

I pray
Even when the lights go out
And the darkest cloud
Tries to hold me down
I pray
Even when I don't know why
And my hands feel tied
I'm afraid at night
I pray
Praying for the son
Praying to the one
Praying won't you come
I pray
I'm not giving up
No
I pray

I'm not sleeping
Not dreaming
Start weeping
Voices in my head
Got me kneeling by the bed
Flipping through pages
Thinking how you fainted
God send an angel
Forever are you faithful
Let him find grace
Find his way
To see your face
Let him come alive
Be healed and not die

I'm standing in faith
In the power of your name

No one evers too far gone
They can change

I used walk this road alone
I used to fight with sticks and stones
But now I know what I believe
This battles won on my knees

I pray

I pray
I'm afraid at night

I pray
Praying for the son
Praying to the one
Praying won't you come

I pray
I'm not giving up
No
I pray

7 months of passed
I got a call from dad
He said your doing fine
And got a stable 9 to 5
I heard your in church
And met a girl at work
I knew you'd turn around
Sometimes I had my doubts
Dang I'm so proud
If only mom could see you now
I'm wiping my tears
Cause I know god hears
Every prayer in faith
It's the mercy & grace
I know our legacy will never be the same

I pray

I pray
Even when I don't know why
I'm afraid at night

I pray
Praying for the son
Praying to the one
Praying won't you come

I pray
I'm not giving up
No
I pray
