

Flowers Bloom

Mandalay

Sometimes
The reflection I see
Bears no
Resemblance to me

Sometimes
I look around the place I live
And wonder
How I came to choose the things I did

In the morning
He smiles
At the start of another day
He smiles

Kisses my shoulder
Cradles his body
Behind mine
Shin to toe to thigh to mind X5

Sometimes
I wake and know the time will come
The day unfolds
Someday
That everything will resonate
Flowers bloom
In desolate places

In the morning
He smiles
At the start of another day
He smiles

Kisses my shoulder
Cradles his body
Behind mine

Shin to toe to thigh to mind X4
Shin to toe to thigh to mind to mine

Sometimes it seems
All the birds are flying south
While I am grounded

One day I'll wake
And everything will resonate
Flowers bloom
In desolate places

In the morning
He smiles
At the start of another day
He smiles

Kisses my shoulder
Cradles his body
Behind mine

Shin to toe to thigh to mind X4
Shin to toe to thigh to mind to mine
