

Imploded

Mandalay

Don't imagine
I'll be losing sleep now it's done
Waited so long
Trapped, imploded, suspended at your feet
Crooked but sure i'll shine like i did when i met you
When i wrote on the steps down by the river
Imagine, i've wasted more
I would kiss you but won't take more
Trapped, imploded, suspended at your feet
Crooked but sure i'll shine like i did when i met you
When i wrote on the steps down by the river
About strength in shining armour
About mirrors and rusting tears
You and I
You were never for me
