

Opposites

Mandalay

Three, four, three, four ...

I want you now as then
Don't tell me you want to stay
Too much time now has passed
Too too soon nothing to do

I was only thinking I would right
Now and then i need a little sting
I was only trying not to second guess
Why you came but

Since I left you
I'm chasing opposites
Things that you do
Pay on my mind till I sets hard i can't
I can't see when you go
I can't see when you go
Silence away, silence with things
No reason why should stay
When you know what to say
To talk me

Talk is cheap
That look of yours
Too too cold
Now the cold
Could you feel (could you feel)
So ravage and misunderstood
Everything cha, cha, changed
Nothing remains

So consider now
When it was easy
Knowing what you do and what you gave
I was sealing knowing what was to be
My mistake but

Since I left you
I'm chasing opposites
Things that you do
Pay on my mind till I sets hard i can't
I can't see when you go
I can't see when you go
Silence away, silence with things
No reason why should stay
When you know what to say
To talk me

That you will never see X6
That will never step on me
A sense of, since i left you

Since I left you
I'm chasing opposites
Things that you do

I can't see when you go
To talk me
