

High Heels

Mando Diao

Ohh you got me shaking
To that moan you made last night
Ohh my body's aching
From that naked summer light

Oh my mind's setting you on It's just a game we play

High heels have got me falling down on
my knees

Ohh the button's pushed
And I am ready for the purple fall
Ohh I'm all addicted
To the sound of a certain call

Oh my mind's melting you
Oh I'm coming all the way

High heels have got me falling down on
my knees

So so long ago since felt shivers down my spine
You I need your sweat as much as you need mine

Oh my mind is melting you

I'm coming all the way!

High heels have got me falling down on
my knees
