

Macadam Cowboy

Mando Diao

Take this forever sigh, and close your eyes as I step in
To get the mother-blow when you're not there
To get the mother-blow when you're not there
I fake, when you make something beautiful of nothingness
Get the mother-blow when you're not there
To get the mother-blow when you're not there

Don't cry my heavy lady, I don't feel anything
Just smile my purple princess, we'll fly away from

Deep cheap thrills that eats us alive again
And takes our lives away
Don't forget the one thing I need is you

But I must tell you something strange
