

Morning Paper Dirt

Mando Diao

You smacked her right between her blue eyes
You didn't think ahead yeah that's what he said
Then everyone of us just turned our backs to him and said
That was not a nice thing to do
I can't believe he was so cruel

But you love your brothers no matter what they say
Yeah you love your brothers no matter what kind of games you play

And it's gonna rain - that's what they say
But we're just gonna cover our heads
And we ain't coming out until we're dead
Oh no
And It's gonna drown all of our sins
But we don't wanna lose what we got
No we don't wanna lose what we own oh no

This stinking alley's full of old cats and dogs
They got no money and they got no home
Once I was one of them but now I'm on my own
And
It feels so good to be an outlaw
In your perfect world

'Cause you love your brothers no matter what they say
Yeah you love your brothers no matter what kind of games you play

And it's gonna rain - that's what they say
But we're just gonna cover our heads
And we ain't coming out until we're dead
Oh no
And it's gonna drown all of our sins
But we don't want to lose what we got
No we don't want to lose what we own oh no

And it's gonna rain and that's for sure
Yeah it's gonna rain and that's for sure
It's gonna rain and that's for sure
Oh no no
