

No More Tears

Mando Diao

Paint the picture with my final sunrise Paint the ocean with the tracks of my tears child I wanna be the only one the only one who knew you when I'm gone and thrown away

When your near me I feel so secure and When you feared me I felt I felt even more, I I wanna be the only one the only one who knew you when I'm gone and flown away I've flown away I've flown away

Cause I got no more tears To give you after these I'm gonna lock my heart and throw away the keys I hope my love will carry on My lord I won't forget you when I'm gone

Didn't know that I could walk through fire Didn't know that death was my desire I wanted to be hold again but you were never here to take my hand I've flown away I've flown away I've flown away

Cause I got no more tears To give you after these I'm gonna lock my heart and throw away the keys I hope my love will carry on My lord I won't forget you when I'm gone

Cause I got no more tears To give you after these I'm gonna lock my heart and throw away the keys I've said it all I gave you all You left me standing in the rain You built my pride and painted Everything in suffer and in pain I hope my love will carry on My lord I won't forget you when I'm gone
