

Romeo

Mando Diao

Last night I was waiting for your call
You know I don't let anything to do
Better must defended on your couch
I guess I could waste another night
Waiting for your lies to give me something
Cuz I'm tired of runnign farther from the pain
Waiting for your lies to give me confort
Cuz I'm tired of runnign farther from the pain
Romeo, berry me alone
Romeo, berry me alone
Why you said that I was so alone?
When I was standing right here with my family
Did you know the names so close to die
Waiting for your lies to give me something
Cuz I'm tired of runnign farther from the pain
Waiting for your lies to give me confort
Cuz I'm tired of runnign farther from the pain
Romeo, berry me alone
Romeo, berry me alone
So my friend it's time to leave
We shouldn't wait another night
Take me by the hand, walk though some
And I will let you on your will
Waiting for your lies to give me something
Cuz I'm tired of runnign farther from the pain
Waiting for your lies to give me confort
Cuz I'm tired of runnign farther from the pain
Romeo, berry me alone
Romeo, berry me alone
