

San Francisco Bay

Mando Diao

I'm going down, it's crazy Getting cream from a man in leather
But if that ain't high enough, What can I do?

He told me, "Son you better try this Turns you on while you're asleep, But if that ain't well enough I'll give you more."

And I, I open my mind today From New York City down to San Fran cisco Bay

I'm going down, it's crazy Getting cream from a man in leather
But if that ain't high enough, What can I do?

Well, I'm seeing red and blue lights Seeing trains from another planet But if that ain't weird enough, what can I do?

And I ain't goin' down like that No, I ain't goin' down like th at I'm just breathing 'till the air gets fresh again

And I, I'm sending my mind today From New York City down to San Francisco Bay

I'm seeing red and blue lights Seeing trains from another plane t But if that ain't weird enough, what can I do?
