

Waves of Fortune

Mando Diao

Fill my glass I'm going now To drink and smoke and laugh and shout I know it's been done but I want more Yesterday's no longer here And all my problems disappear I've got my boys behind me once again And somewhere in my head I still feel the elephant roar And somewhere on my skin I cut the dirtiest sore I know it's true

REFRAIN

So did I So did I So did all of us In the eye of the storm We believe in us And everyone knows us And still we're no one you know

Waves of fortune, life's for real Birds to love and drugs to steal
If you see me crying can you please hide my face Sadness lives in different times Where people buying different drugs Cheaper than a dime they're all disgusting And somewhere in my head I still feel the elephant roar And somewhere on my skin I cut the dirtiest sore I know it's true

REFRAIN (2x)

So did I So did I So did all of us In the eye of the storm
