

My sighs swallowed through this rail,
ice-bars, clench my breath away...
Maddened mind rends tears when I see your face, maiden, like misty nights...Crucified.

Lovely & insane mental excitement,
I will lose all my lonely wings
and I want you to come to the land of spring, and...

Lodestar's, I'll summon all my stars,
...brambles in my arms...
Enlighten my hellish curse inside
only bewitched by your light.
Destroy, enlighten, unveilin' your heart,
breathin' my lifeless and lonely haze.
This life, beyond inscrutable tide,
we'll meet again if you wanna rise.

Enchased in my spasm of faith,
dark heaven falls, faraway hell...
Now I'm defyin' my blindin' race,
doleful place...Creepin' along my desire,
...fades away...
Never mourns, angel, life must regret...

I will lose all my lonely wings
and I want you to come to the land of spring, and...

Lodestar's, I'll summon all my stars,
...brambles in my arms...
Enlighten my hellish curse inside
only bewitched by your light.
Destroy & enlighten, unveilin' your heart,
breathin' my lifeless and lonely haze.
This life, beyond inscrutable tide,
we'll meet again if you wanna rise.
