

The Veil of Neith

Mandragora Scream

What is the meaning of our lives if we die?

Tonight I walk fast through space and time
'Cause your call burns like desire in my mind
For you want me to rise above mankind

Draw aside your veil
And show your grace
Now you own my life

I melt with you
Reborn from you
Please reweave my soul

Tonight in the gloomy streets of Sais
On the eve of your supreme sacrifice
I breath mysterious scents from your rites

Unveil your eyes
Immortal night
Now you own my life

I melt with you
Reborn from you
Please reweave my soul

Now you own my life, life
