

Overrated

Mandy Capristo

Okay,
I know that I'm alone
The second I get home
'cause nothing's changed at all and everythings's just how I left it my cups still by the sink and that book that makes me think still on the page I was this morning as I was leavin'

Yeah I can go anywhere, anytime that I like I'm the one who decides when you turn out the light Got everything that I want and a little bit more But there's a hole right here that wasn't there before

CHORUS

I never thought that I would say this single life is overrated
never thought I'd ever missed you cause I was the one to let you go but without (you)
I'm lost and I don't know how (to)
get back the love I had but (uhh)
away
never thought I'm miss complicated
alone is overrated

So I got this brandnew life and it felt good for a while Sure I had fun, I partied with the best It's only when I stop I realize what I haven't got Only so many times you can wake up, wake up at a stranger dress

I want your stuff on the floor That's how to me slammin' doors now I got all the space I don't know what is for Sometimes what you think you want, is on what you really need right now I'd give anything to have you here with me

CHORUS

I never thought that I would say this
(to)

alone is overrated

No I didn't think it through No I can't believe that you won't be walking through the door Is all I'm askin' for I'm on my own

CHORUS
I never thought that I would say this
(to)
get back the love I had but (uhh)
never thought I'm miss complicated
alone is overrated

whooh
alone is overrated
alone is overrated
alone is overrated

I miss you...
