

Merrimack River

Mandy Moore

Restless to begin
A wave comes crashing in
The band on stage is tuning
Jacarandas are blooming

Your face sketched in the trees
Puts my mind at ease
Beneath the water frozen
The Merrimack River is flowing Thunder rolling over

Don't say you're not amazed
when you know you are
And don't say you're not afraid
when you know you are

Rows of boys and girls
Line up to see the world
Candy-coated promise
Just out of reach when you want it

Give me something sweet
Bring me to the brink
I'll leave without hesitation
To a world without limitation
Rock me patient, slowly

Don't say you're not amazed
when you know you are
And don't say you're not afraid
when you know you are
You know you are

A world that moves too fast
A mouth of broken glass
It may not seem so painful
By January, the rain will swallow
Change will follow

Don't say you're not amazed
when you know you are Don't say you're not afraid
when you know you are
You know you are
I know you are
