

Nothing That You Are

Mandy Moore

Somebody told me,
they saw you somewhere
Somebody hold me,
cause suddenly I'm a little, cold
Well I must be mistaken,
you for somebody else
I know you all too well, or do I?

I heard you say
We were one and the same
Well wrong again
I could never do those things you did to me
I will be ok
In time you'll fade
Into the nothing that you are
The nothing you are

Somebody sold me,
yeah the same old story
Yea yeah, yea yeah
Hadn't you told me,
you were there the whole time
[Nothing That You Are

Yea yeah, yea yeah
Well I must be mistaken,
you for somebody else
I hope you burn in hell, or do I?

I know your mistakes will hunt you down, eventually You'll know that when you hit the ground
Your weakness did you in, and delt me out
It's ok, I have the truth on my side

I heard you say
We were one and the same
We'll wrong again
I could never do those things, you , did, to me
I will be ok
In time you'll fade
Into nothing that you are The nothing you are (4x)
