

Martha's Madman

Manfred Mann's Earth Band

Martha has a madman
Standing hidden in the shadows
He's got a long curved Turkish dagger
With a bejeweled handle

He's tellin' her the world is full of freaks and geeks and simp les and he's Hiding like a leprechaun under stones and in the ripples
In the pool of time she thought she knew it, but someone threw a stone into it
Which breaks up the surface and it's makin' her nervous and it' s true
What can she do, yes it's true
What can she do
Martha yes I guess you'll have to wait around, another thousand years

Martha's gettin' nervous as she wanders
Through his valley
Where the shadows always frightening
And the whispers tell her stories
