

Change

Manic Drive

Pay no heed to this
Try to drive it back
No need to reminisce
On my daunting past
And lock my eyes
Next to paradise
So I just might
Try to fulfill with less

Cause I still miss you
I can't grieve without you
My world needs to change

I'm so far from being
The pious saint
I'm reasoned to be
By enthusiasts
Make mental obstacles
To pace around the thoughts
That makes this unbearable journey
Harder to walk
