

Middle Of It All

Manic Drive

So here I am
Beat and broken
Stretch apart from my heart and my conscious
Silent thoughts start circling around me
Faint whispers constantly remind me
Yes I love you, but it's so hard
To be standing with this torn heart
Ease my mind make it clear
Cause I want to stay
And I fall in the middle of it all
Try to see in the darkness where I crawl
I fall in the middle of it all

And I'm stranded
Ease my mind, make it clear
So here I am
Beat and broken
Stretch apart from my good intentions
I look at your face
Beauty overwhelms me
But the whispers come back to haunt me
Yes I love you, but it's so hard
To be standing with this torn heart
Ease my mind make it clear
Cause I want to stay
