

VIP feat. Manwell Reyes

Manic Drive

Ladies and gents welcome to the rock show,
center spotlight and we watch the stage glow.
Backstage access but you're seated at the front row,
house lights shut off and here we go!

Get up,
like you're one in a million.
Get up,
like a diamond, you're brilliant.
Get up,
oh don't stop believing.
You're star tonight!

Like we're rocking our shades at night on the way to the show,
cruising in the black of a Cadillac limo,
hit the carpet pass the velvet ropes.

Like we got an all access pass to the show tonight,
paparazzi shot me and my suit and tie,
heaven's got me feeling like I'm so alive.

No ticket price name's on guest list tonight,
just flash your pass and walk through all the waiting lines.
Selected and you're destined for the spotlight,
chosen and free you born to be!

Get up,
like you're one in a million.
Get up,
like a diamond, you're brilliant.
Get up,
oh don't stop believing.
You're star tonight!

Like we're rocking our shades at night on the way to the show,

(Manwell Reyes)
Get the flash out my eyes,
yeah my future bright,
paparazzi all around me,
trying to catch my life.

What they don't know isn't gonna metter cause the better parts of me ain't gonna capture with a lens.
But the fact that I'm created with a purpose that is greater than the status that the world is trying to lend.

But I'm backstage, everyday, all access, never wait, fly first class, see you at the gate, God is so good nah man, God great.
And there'll never be a time that you wait in lane, he already paid the cover it's about time, that you live life.
Bigger than before
VIP, just walk through the door.
