

Ladies and gents
Welcome to the rock show
Center spotlight
And we watch the stage glow
Backstage access
But you're seated at the front row
House lights shut off
And here we go
Get up, like you're one in a million
Get up, like a diamond you're brilliant
Get up, oh don't stop believing
You're a star tonight

Like we're rocking our shades at night on the way to the show
Cruising in the back of a Cadillac limo
Hit the red carpet pass the velvet ropes
Like we got an all access pass to the show tonight
Paparazzi shot me and my suit and tie
Heaven's got me feeling like I'm so alive
We're meant to be V.I.P.

No ticket price
Name's on guest list tonight
Just flash your pass
And walk through all the waiting lines
Selected and you're destined for the spotlight
Chosen and free, you're born to be
Get up, like you're one in a million
Get up, like a diamond you're brilliant
Get up, oh don't stop believing
You're a star tonight

Get the flash out my eyes
Ya, my future bright
Paparazzi all around me
Trying to catch my life
What they don't know isn't gonna matter
Cause the better parts of me ain't gonna capture with a lens
But the fact that I'm created with a purpose that is greater than the status that the world is trying to lend
But I'm backstage, everyday
All access, never wait
Fly first class, see you at the gate
God is so good, na man God great
And there'll never be a time that you wait in line
He already paid your cover, it's about time
That you live life bigger than before
VIP just walk through the door
