

This country, it could've changed
A little bit of the world, you said
I may have told you this before
I could have been the king of Wales

Maybe we were doomed to fail
But you came and destroyed everything
Still looking for the question mark
At least we've not yet reached the full stop
At least we've not yet reached the full stop

But 1404 got left behind
And we were trapped and stuck in time
We had it all, we had our smiles
And 1404 got left behind

If R. S. Thomas was compulsory and Saunders Lewis was for free Owain Glyndŵr our history and Dylan kept the memories
and Dylan kept the memories

But 1404 got left behind
And we were trapped and stuck in time
We had it all, we had our smiles
And 1404 got left behind

This country, it could've changed
A little bit of the world, you said
I may have told you this before
I could have been the king of Wales