

Evidence Against Myself

Manic Street Preachers

I don't need a lawyer to convict my soul
It's the only decent thing living in my bones

The evidence against myself is compelling
Is so compelling
It's hard to avoid all the things you've been saying
Things you've been saying
Things you've been saying
The truth hurts baby, when you're stuck in denial

Buried all in the belly of a song
Then all my flaws will become invisible

The evidence against myself is compelling
Is so compelling
Gotta keep moving on cause it stops me from feeling
Stops me from feeling
Stops me from feeling
The truth hurts baby when you're stuck in denial

The evidence against myself is compelling
It's so compelling
It's hard to avoid all the things you've been saying
Things you've been saying
Things you've been saying
Gotta keep moving on cause it stops me from feeling
