

Locust Valley

Manic Street Preachers

Famously unknown
Elusive and dismantled
A correspondence school behind
All the world, the darkest glass

I don't need it, I don't fear it
I don't need it, I don't fear it

Long Island blues in Locust Valley

In Locust Valley

Simply unconstructed
The shattered portrait's frame
I feel the words and company names
Of his attempts at empty fame

I don't need it, I don't fear it
I don't need it, I don't fear it
