Find your faith in your security
All broken up at seventeen
Jam your brain with broken heroes
Love your masks and adore your failure

We're a mess of eyeliner and spraypaint D.I.Y. destruction on chanel chic Deny your culture of consumption This is a culture of destruction

Don't wanna see your face Don't wanna hear your words Why don't you just

Don't wanna see your face Don't wanna hear your words Why don't you just

Babes on the run with poisoned lips Wrap your arms round this everlasting kiss Clinging to your own sense of waste All we love is lonely wreckage

Your school your dole and your chequebook dreams Your clothes your suits and your pension schemes Now you say you know how we feel But don't fall in love cos we hate you still

Don't wanna see your face Don't wanna hear your words Why don't you just

Don't wanna see your face Don't wanna hear your words Why don't you just

Destroyed by madness, oh yeah Destroyed by madness, oh yeah Destroyed by madness, oh yeah Anxiety is freedom
