

The Future Has Been Here 4Ever

Manic Street Preachers

Wipe those tears away
Keep as still as you can
Hold your breath and dig deep
And stop those trembling hands

Make yourself pretty
Just for one last time
No-one will ever know
You ever left your prime

The future has been here 4ever
The future is still unclear, whatever

This place it left me
A long long time ago
But it still keeps me here
It still keeps me close
When I start to break free
It calls me back again
Like the Godfather III
I never can escape

My future has been here 4ever
The future is still unclear, whatever

When you can't shake off your yesterdays
When you can't rewrite your history

When you let some love break through the light
Will you let some hope come into your life
To your life
To your life
To your life
