

Hallowed Be Thy Grave

Manilla Road

There's tombs of the unknown soldiers
Round all the world
For honored and fallen warriors
Names lost to the earth

Their stories will never be told
Lost for all times
In memory of soldiers unknown
And their sacrifice

Hallowed be thy grave
For the freedom of the ones you saved
Hallowed be thy grave
For the honor and the lives you gave

The battlefields run red with blood
Across the lands
Souls flow through the gates like a flood
The stain upon man

These fallen ones never shall know
Glory or fame
Each soldier, an unknown hero
Hallowed be thy grave

Hallowed be thy grave
For the freedom of the ones you saved
Hallowed be thy grave
For the honor and the lives you gave.
