Haunted Palace

Manilla Road

A fair and stately palace Gone mad within itself No life around the forest Circling the monarch's realm

The curse of generations
Upon the Usher clan
Turned life to desolation
Laid waste to fruitful land

Haunted Palace

Sacrificial blood stains
The family born to fall
Never to break evil's chains
Brought forth by ancient call

Distortion of the senses
Damnation of the soul
The palace of the breathless
Where death's bell takes it's toll

Haunted Palace

Destruction of Foundations Both of the mind and mass Caused by incantations Of family members past

Inner plane disturbance Crumbling every wall Tormented by existence The Haunted Palace falls
