

The Grey God Passes

Manilla Road

Onto the field of Clontarf
Warlords scream in
Both pagan and christian of heart
An age comes to end

The ground shall bare the mark
Of glory's crimson stain

Battle is night
Raise up your eyes
Look to the sky
Valkyries fly

Two honored chieftains collide
Battle begins
Comes the Grey God with one eye
Fighting within

The ground shall bare the mark
Of glory's crimson stain

Battle is night
Raise up your eyes
Look to the sky
Valkyries fly

The age of old gods ending
Replaced by man's misgivings
But still the ravens call to Odin

The ground shall bare the mark
Of glory's crimson stain

The spears of Clontarf gleaming
The blood and sweat is streaming
Resounding battle horns are calling

Grey one eye apparition
Grey hand of doom so viscous
The Valkyrie choose from the fallen

The age of old gods ending
Replaced by man's misgivings
But still the ravens call to Odin.
