

Lies

Mankind Is Obsolete

Emotion,
Devotion,
Lies
Complete me,
Believe,
But don't look in my eyes
I can't deny,
I can't deny
This lonely,
So lonely heart wants more

There's no place for truth
When there's no room for change
And empty motions
Are all that remain
It's burning me up
It's taking its toll
This life here with you
That keeps me from being whole
I don't belong here anymore

Contain me,
Erase me,
I'm all used up
What can we do now?
What can we be now?
If we're undone
Don't hold too tightly,
'Cause the ending's coming soon
No future
No present
The past belongs to you

There's no place for truth
When there's no room for change
And empty motions
Are all that remain
It's burning me up
It's taking its toll
This life here with you
That keeps me from being whole
I don't belong here anymore

Emotion,
Devotion,
Lies
Complete me,
Believe me,
But don't look in my eyes
I can't deny
I can't deny
I can't deny

There's no place
for truth
When there's no room for change
And empty motions

Are all that remain
It's burning me up
It's taking its toll
This life here with you
That keeps me from being whole
I don't belong here anymore
