

Love And Hate

Mano Negra

I love your lips and I love your legs
I love your eyes
Baby, you got style
I love your clothes and I love your smile
I love you, I love you, I love you while you don't even look at me and I go crazy
All the women that I love or hate
I sing my song of love and hate
I hate the boys walkin' by your side
I hate my dreams
They don't satisfy
I hate me, babe, for being too shy
I hate you, I hate you, I hate you while you don't even look at
me and I go crazy
All the women that I never had
I sing my song of love and hate
You neighbour's sweetheart
You magazine girl
You striptease bird from the underworld
You sweet sixteen
You little dames
You late thirties
Sweet Japanese
Ornella Muti
Si jolie mademoiselle
Vous etes ma folie
Vous etes si belles
For all the women that I never had, I sing my song of love and hate
For all the women that I never had, I sing my song

I love your body
Baby you got style
You fly so high when you're passin' by
It makes me laugh and it makes me cry
Makes me wanna die when there's no reason why
For all the women that I never had, I sing my song of love and
hate
For all the women that I never had, I sing my song of love and
hate
For all the women that I never had, I sing my song of love
For all the women that I never had, I sing my song
I sing my song
