Let the Gods Decide

Manowar

Warriors take the field The battlefield of life You cannot run You cannot hide

I am the keeper of the laws Decided by the Gods

Only one of us will win and return to fight again

I am the keeper of the laws Decided by the Gods

Our ancestors cheer from far beyond the grave One will survive Face me Then let the Gods decide

I've sworn an oath in blood to defend the land and all who wish to test their steel well here I am

I am the keeper of the laws Decided by the Gods

Our ancestors cheer from far beyond the grave One will survive Face me Then let the Gods decide
