

Master of the wind

Manowar

In the silence of the darkness when all are fast asleep
I live inside a dream calling to your spirit
As a sail calls the wind, hear the angels sing

Far beyond the sun across the western sky
Reach into the blackness find a silver line
In a voice I whisper a candle in the night
We'll carry all our dreams on a single beam of light

R: Close your eyes, look into the dream
Winds of change will winds of fortune bring

R2: Fly away to a rainbow in the sky
Gold is at the end for each of us to find
There the road begins where another one will end Here the four winds know who will break and who will bend
All to be the master of the wind

Falling stars now light my way
My life was written on the wind
Clouds above, clouds below
High ascends the dream within
When the wind fills the sky
The clouds will move aside
And there will be the road to all our dreams
And for any day that stings
Two better days it brings Nothing is as bad as it seems
